15. In September, 1592, Robert Greene, referring to Marlowe and his alleged atheism, wrote in Groatsworth of Wit:

Why shouldst thy excellent wit, His Gift, be so blinded that thou shouldst give no glory to the Giver? Is it pestilent Machivilian policy thou hast studied? O peevish folly!
What are his rules but more confused mockeries, able to extirpate in small time the generation of mankind . . .

The brother of this diabolical atheism is dead.
